

Kurma Capital

Independent Capital Advisory & Research.
Perspective Over Cycles.

“ Complex capital decisions demand more than standard solutions. They require independent judgment, analytical rigor, and a long-term perspective. ”

We are a partner-led advisory and research firm.

We advise founders, corporates, investors, and institutions where judgment, independence, and long-term perspective are critical.

Partner-Led Advisory

Senior partners lead every engagement, ensuring deep expertise and strategic insight.

Independent Perspective

Free from conflicts of interest, we provide unbiased advice focused solely on our clients' long-term success.

Cycle-Aware Strategy

Our research-driven approach considers market cycles, helping clients navigate both opportunities and challenges effectively.

Our Foundation is Independence.

We operate without product-driven incentives or balance-sheet conflicts. This allows us to provide objective, evidence-based recommendations aligned solely with client outcomes. Our only incentive is our client's success.

Our Approach: A Disciplined Framework

Our methodology combines senior expertise with rigorous analysis to deliver objective, actionable advice. Each engagement is built on five foundational principles.

1.	Partner-Led Execution: Senior expertise, continuity, and accountability from start to finish.
2.	Founder & Stakeholder Alignment: Balancing all strategic, financial, and governance objectives.
3.	Sector-Aligned Insight: Deep industry context, not generic frameworks.
4.	Conflict-Free Advice: Objective, evidence-based recommendations.
5.	Long-Cycle Perspective: Building durable outcomes across economic environments.

Senior Execution and Stakeholder Alignment

1

Partner-Led Execution

Every engagement is led and executed by senior professionals who remain directly involved from initial framing through completion.

- Senior partner involvement from start to finish
- Direct accountability and continuity
- Depth of experience applied to every decision

2

Founder & Stakeholder Alignment

We approach engagements with a founder-first and stakeholder-aware mindset, ensuring strategic, financial, and governance considerations remain aligned.

- Alignment of strategic and financial objectives
- Balanced consideration of all stakeholders
- Transparent governance and decision frameworks

Insight, Independence, and a Long-Cycle Perspective

3

Sector-Aligned Insight

Our work is informed by deep sector understanding rather than generic frameworks, focusing on industry dynamics and long-term value drivers.

4

Conflict-Free Advice

We operate without product-driven incentives, allowing us to provide objective, independent advice aligned solely with client outcomes.

5

Long-Cycle Perspective

We evaluate decisions through the lens of capital cycles, supporting durable outcomes across varying economic environments.

Four Core Practice Areas. One Integrated Approach.

We provide partner-led advisory across four core practice areas, each designed to address complex capital situations where judgment, independence, and deep analytical rigor are critical to success.

Transaction Advisory

Valuation Advisory
